COMPENSATION FOR TENANTS

- On or before the effective date of this Notice, the landlord must pay the tenant an amount equal to one month's rent payable under the tenancy agreement.
- If this Notice is ending a periodic tenancy, the tenant may withhold the last month's rent instead of being paid compensation.
- Compensation is not owed to tenants who receive this Notice because they do not qualify for the subsidized rental unit.
- If a tenant has already paid the last month's rent, the landlord must refund the rent as the compensation.
- If the landlord does not take steps toward the purpose for which this Notice was given or if the unit is not used for the stated purpose for at least 6 months beginning within a reasonable period after the effective date of this Notice, the landlord or purchaser must pay the tenant an additional amount equal to double the monthly rent paid under the tenancy agreement.
- If this is a periodic tenancy, a tenant who receives this Notice can give 10-days notice and move out early. The landlord must still pay the tenant one-month's rent as compensation.

- The date when the landlord leaves this Notice with an adult (19 years or older) who apparently lives with the tenant, or

INFORMATION FOR TENANTS WHO RECEIVE THIS NOTICE TO END TENANCY

- You have the right to dispute this Notice within 15 days after it is assumed to be received by filing an Application for Dispute Resolution at the Residential Tenancy Branch. A Dispute Resolution Officer may extend your time to file an Application, but only if he or she accepts your proof that you had a serious and compelling reason for not filing the Application on time.
- If you do not file an Application for Dispute Resolution within 15 days, you are presumed to accept that the tenancy is ending and must move out of the rental unit by the date set out on page 1 of this Notice (You can move out sooner). If you do not file the Application or move out, your landlord can apply for an Order of Possession that is enforceable through the court.

INFORMATION FOR LANDLORDS WHO WANT TO END A TENANCY

- Take steps to confirm that the tenant actually receives this Notice when it is assumed to be received. A Dispute Resolution Officer may set this Notice aside if the tenant can prove that he/she did not receive this Notice due to circumstances beyond his/her control.
- If the tenant fails to move out of the rental unit, or if you believe the tenant does not intend to move out and the tenant's deadline to dispute this Notice has expired, you can apply to the Residential Tenancy Branch for an Order of Possession.
- If the tenant applies to dispute this Notice, you can attend the tenant's hearing and verbally ask for an Order of Possession.

INFORMATION FOR BOTH LANDLORDS AND TENANTS

- Keep copies of all Notices to End Tenancy and record each date and how the Notice was given or received.
- An error in this Notice or an incorrect move-out date on this Notice does not make it invalid. A Dispute Resolution Officer can order that the tenancy ends on a date other than the date specified in this Notice.
- It is against the law for a landlord to (1) physically evict a tenant without a Writ of Possession, or (2) change the locks without a Dispute Resolution Officer's order to do so, or (3) seize a tenant's personal property without a court order.
